

This Privacy Policy applies to our website.

This policy describes BridgesDHH's privacy practices where it appears. This includes the mobile version of our website.

We collect information from and about you when you fill out forms.

Contact information: For example, we might collect your name and street address. We might also collect your phone number, email address, hearing status or other relevant info when you opt into a form (register for a class, RSVP for an event, contact us, etc.).

Payment information: If you make a donation on our site, we will collect your credit card information to process payment, but that information is not stored.

Information you submit or post: If you post content, apply to volunteer or request information, we will collect the information you provide to us and pass it to the appropriate responder.

Other information: If you use our website, we may collect information about the browser you are using. We track which sections of the site visitors visit the most, and the average time visitors spend on our pages. We also track how many people visit our site and peak traffic times. We might look at what site you came from, or what site you visit when you leave us. We collect this information using certain tracking tools.

We keep personal information for as long as it remains necessary or relevant for the purposes described here. We also keep information as otherwise required by law.

We may link to third party sites or services we don't control.

If you click on one of those links, you will be taken to websites we don't control. We are not responsible for these third parties' sites, or any changes or updates to them. Including a link does not mean we endorse that site.

Feel free to contact us if you have more questions.
